If you have questions about full disclosure, please come to student services.

Next week, in fact one week from today, Beaver Brae musicians are putting on a show that will knock your socks off!

The show features our most talented and committed singers and instrumentalists and is called Faces and Places, as it's theme is people's names and where they are from. If you would like to see this show, there will be a student show starting at 12:45, and going through the break into period 4 if necessary. You MUST buy your ticket ahead of time though. Tickets will be on sale on Thursday and Friday of this week in the upper atrium, for just a toonie! Remember, you cannot pay at the door, or buy a ticket on the day of the show. Hope to see you there to support your friends and enjoy a great show!

Trylight Theatre is looking for two makeup assistants for their production of A Christmas Story, beginning this Friday and running through until December 1st. Students who participate will receive volunteer hours. For more information, please see Darth Jutila in student services.
