ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monday, February 5, 2018

Day 1

If scorekeeping or refereeing in the intermediate basketball tournament on Monday Feb. 12th interests you, please speak to Mr. Milko

Would all Coffee House performers please come to the music room today at lunch for a run through. First come, first served, so get there early!

Attention high school students. If you would like to be a referee or scorekeeper in the intermediate basketball tournament on Monday, Feb 12th at Beaver Brae, please see Mr. Milko.

Grad photo retakes will be happening on February 15th & 16th, please come to the office to make your appointment.

There will be a brief meeting today at lunch in room 301 for students going on the New York Trip.

Attention Bronco Fans! There is a pep rally planned for your Beaver Brae Broncos tomorrow. We host the Dryden Eagles that day and we want to pump our athletes up before the court sport games. This will be an interactive event where we will be calling upon members of the student body to participate in the pep rally games planned for that day. We ask that the student body wear as much purple and white as you can to show off your school spirit. More info will be coming on Monday so listen for the announcements.

KRRCFS is seeking a summer student to work as an office clerk. Students must be returning to school in the fall (either high school or post-secondary), and have a valid driver's license. For more information, please see Ms. Quistberg or Mr. Jutila.

Any students interested in a career in policing are invited to attend an RCMP week long training camp this summer. Applicants must be ages 16-19, and the deadline for applications is March 1st. Please see Mr. Jutila or Ms. Quistberg for more information.

If you are a Grade 12 SHSM student and have not completed your first aid, please see Mrs. Bichon or Mr. Sparkman. First Aid is a required certification for SHSM students. Space is limited so don't delay!
