Day 4

Congratulations to Ethan Alcock and Sutton Tresoor who placed fifth in the Junior Boys Doubles division at yesterday's NWOSSAA badminton tournament in Thunder Bay, capping off a strong Bronco badminton season. Both players showed good competitive spirit at an equally competitive tourney, and they should be happy with their play this year. Congratulations to all athletes who played Bronco badminton; it was a positive and enjoyable year of growth, and next season looks like it'll be a good one! All players who borrowed racquets and/or other equipment are reminded to return it to Darth Jutila in student services ASAP.

What a great day for a coffee house! It's a little grey outside, so why not stay in and listen to some fantastic music! There are plenty of new performers on today's line up. So bring your lunch, and come early to get a good seat!

The library will be closed all day, including the lunch hour today as the Health Unit will be at the school for immunizations.

The Environmental Science class is reminded of their day of discovery field trip to the Water Treatment Plant today. Please report to the bus at 10:15.

Attention Grade 8 Travel Club members. There will be a quick but important meeting today in room 322 at 12:15. We will be collecting sizes for t-shirts, as well as handing out our last fundraiser of the year. Please make sure you attend.
