Day 5

The Junior boys' volleyball team wrapped up their regular season last night with a close match against the Dryden Eagles. Jayce Paypompee impressed Mrs. Dockerty with his amazing Jump serve. Ethan Jones roofed 3 players on his journey to setting a game high for blocks. And, Sean Kakepeetum stepped up big time for the team filling in for injured setter Josh Cameron. Keep pushing boys, NORWOSSA gold is in your grasp!

Yesterday, the Junior Girls' Basketball team had their final regular season game with a strong defeat against Dryden. The team played very well offensively with 7 different players adding to the scoreboard. Georgia Fortner's and Maddie Caron's helped the team with their great jump shots. Rest up for next week girls!

The 7/8 girls' volleyball teams played really well against TA yesterday, one of our teams was undefeated! We are all very proud of their performance yesterday.

Archery practice will be held today in the small gym, from 3:30-5. All students welcome, all equipment is provided. Talk to Mr. Hancock for further details.
